

Editorial Profile	Gazeta Wyborcza is the leading national daily that is published since the first free elections in Poland. On 50 to 60 pages the paper informs, analyses and comments on topical national and global events in politics, economy, science and culture.
Language	polish
Frequency	daily (Mo-Sat)
Circulation	585,000 copies a day (Polish ABC, 10/2004 – 09/2005)
Average reach	2,100,000 readers per issue (Polish Readership Survey PBC General)
Readership	mainly urban readers from 25 to 54 years old, with a middle or high income
Internet site	http://www.gazeta.pl